The Parent PLUS Loan is designed to assist the parents of dependent undergraduate students in meeting educational expenses. There are no income restrictions on eligibility for this loan, but a credit check is required for loan processing. The annual limit is the cost of education minus financial assistance awarded to the student. Students who wish to benefit from a Parent PLUS Loan must complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), as well as institutional financial aid forms. If you borrow a Parent PLUS Loan, the student’s eligibility for other financial aid may be affected. Therefore, we suggest that the student apply for all other types of financial aid such as grants, work-study, and student loans before you apply for a Parent PLUS Loan. You will begin repayment 60 days after the full amount of the loan has been disbursed.

Eligibility: The parent borrower must be the biological or adoptive parent of the child for whom you are borrowing. If you are the stepparent of the student, you may borrow a Parent PLUS Loan if your income and assets were reported on the FAFSA. A non-custodial biological parent may also borrow under the PLUS program; however, the custodial parent must file the FAFSA. If you are a non-custodial biological parent applying for a Parent PLUS Loan, you must furnish verification of your relationship to the student (student’s birth certificate with you listed as the parent).

The parent must be a U.S. citizen or national, permanent resident of the United States, or an otherwise eligible noncitizen. The parent must not be in default on a federal education loan or owe an overpayment on a federal education grant. The student must be dependent and enrolled or accepted for enrollment at Georgia Highlands College.

Disbursements: Parent PLUS Loan funds will be credited to the student’s account after the drop/add period (or when the loan is ready if after this date) and will be used to clear all outstanding obligations. When the disbursement of Parent PLUS Loan funds results in a credit balance, the excess funds will be refunded to the student unless the parent borrower provides a signed statement to the Business Office indicating they want the refund check issued to them instead. You must meet the financial aid priority deadline for the term you are applying for in order to receive the funds after drop/add.
